Bullard, Bible student, writes the Ashland Bugle: "I was born the 7th of March, 1837, was married in 1870, will be 77 years old the 7th of March and have 7 children. The 7 children represent the 7 lean cattle, 7 fat cattle, the 7 candlesticks, the 7 churches of Asia, the 7 seals, or the 1 wise men. Take "10, representing the year I was married, and multiply it by 7 and you have 490, the number of years the children of Israel were in bondage. My age, 7, represents the 7 trumpets and the thunders, both spoken of in Revelations, and the last 7's on the stage of time.

"Grandma Hindman is a firm believer in dandellon wine as a cure for rheumatism," says the Olathe Mirror.
"She is $3 years of age and each spring picks enough dandellons and makes emough wine to last a year—and in the fall when she is troubled with rheumatism she finds that it is a splendid remedy. It takes about 700 dandellon heads to make a gallon of wine and last week, in order to be sure to have snough she picked $60 heads. She knew the number was $60, for she made an actual count of every for she made an actual count of every one dropped in her basket."

A current newspaper item is as folbuying six cylinder motor cars is only the first shot in a very expensive campaign. Maintenance and operating costs can't be accurately figured in advance. Nothing depreciates faster than an automobile. The best six to buy is a fine building lot for six hundred dollars, placing the rest of the car money in an attractive cottage.
